The 1943

CENTRALITE

IN SPITE OF THE MANY HANDICAPS AND IN FACE OF AN ALL OUT WAR EFFORT,
THE STAFF OF THE CENTRALITE HAS TRIED TO MAKE THIS OUR SENIOR EDITION SO
NEARLY NORMAL AS POSSIBLE.

IT IS OUR PURPOSE TO PRESERVE IN THESE FEW PAGES SOME OF THE HAPPY MEM-ORIES THAT HAVE COME TO US DURING
THIS DISTURBED YEAR, WHEN THE WORLD IS FILLED WITH SORROW AND DISTRESS.

WITH A PRAYER FOR PEACE IN OUR HEARTS AND A WORLD OF GOOD WISHES TO EACH OF YOU, WE THE STAFF OF
THE CENTRALITE SUBMIT THIS 1943 SENIOR
EDITION TO YOU FOR YOUR CONSIDER-ATION AND PLEASURE

*To one we delight to honor,
MISS NANNIE LEE HICKS,
this nineteen hundred and forty-three edition of the Centralite is affectionately dedicated*

MISS HASSIE K. GRESHAM
Principal

One who never turned his back but marched breast forward, never doubted clouds would break, never dreamed, though right were worsted, wrong would triumph, hold we fall to rise, are baffled to fight better, sleep to wake.

GREATEST PRAISE IS DUE THE FORMER MEMBERS OF THE FACULTY AND THE
HUNDREDS OF CENTRAL ALUMNI WHO ARE NOW SERVING OUR COUNTRY ON LAND, SEA, AND IN THE AIR. AND, TO THOSE WHO ARE ENTERING THE SERVICE
AT THE END OF THIS TERM, WE WISH THE BEST OF LUCK

THE DETERMINATION TO WIN IS ECHOED
IN THE BREAST OF EVERY FREEDOM-LOV-ING AMERICAN, NO SACRIFICE IS TOO
GREAT A PRICE TO PAY FOR THE SUPPORT
OUR ARMED FORCES MUST HAVE TO WIN
THIS WAR

IT IS BY CONCERTED, WHOLE-HEARTED
COOPERATION OF EVERY INDIVIDUAL, THAT AMERICA DEMONSTRATES IT'S WILL
TO WIN! THIS IS THE SPIRIT THAT SURELY WILL SPEED OUR VICTORY AND A RETURN TO A BETTER WAY OF LIFE

SENIOR RECESSIONAL

CLASS HISTORY

We the senior class of '43 dedicate this history to Hitler, Mussolini, and Hirohito in the hopes that they, when they read of our accomplishments, will give up their hopeless fight.

To begin our brilliant careers as freshmen, we elected as our officers the following students: DeWilda Meyer, president; Mary Margaret Painter, vice-president; Betty Cruze, treasurer; Nancy Johnson, secretary. Beginning the year right, we, as freshmen, presented the Freshman Midway, a pantomime of the visit of King George and Queen Elizabeth to the United States. A number of our class participated in this presentation, a few of whom were Nancy Johnson and J. A. Foster, who is now in the Army, as President and Mrs. Roosevelt. Mary Ann White was Queen Elizabeth and Edward Minton was King George. The five Dances were played by Fern Nicely, June Jarnagin, Nancy King, Betty June Rose, and Juanita Gibbs.

May Day was the next big event. We elected as candidates four beautiful girls, Nancy Johnson, DeWilda Meyer, Mary Anne White, and Evelyn Sisk. Mary Anne and Evelyn remained in the final race and became maids. Weren't we a proud class!

On High School Day at the Hill, we came back home with quite a few honors. A number of freshmen were in the Glee Club which won first place. In Latin, Hubert Hill took first honors.

When Peter Block day rolled around, our smartest members received their due rewards. Alvin Murphy won the algebra cup; Faye England, the English cup; and Hubert Hill was awarded five dollars for having the highest grades in the class. Such honors as these brought about the end of our eventful freshman year.

We started living the upright lives of sophomores by electing as our class officers the following students: Stewart McCorkle, president; Mary Margaret Painter, vice-president; Carrie Belle Morris, secretary; and Grady Renfro, treasurer. Being too interested in our mental life, we did not have much time for play. There was no May Day this year, but there was a Victory Night, and three of our sophomore girls were attendants to Miss Columbia. They were Betty Highbaugh, Dorothy Osmun, and Sue Ella Vaughn.

On High School Day David Block won third place in Caesar. Many others placed in the Latin contest. We thought this quite an accomplishment, for Jeanette Deane, Claudia Smith, Hubert Hill, Sarah Murphy, David Block and Bobby Hethmon went to Nashville to represent us in the State Latin Tournament.

On Peter Block Day two girls (Boys, don't say the girls do not have brains!) won the algebra cup. They were Sally Gray and Lucille Dunkle. Two girls also tied for top honors. They were Frances Large and Betty Highbaugh. Hubert Hill ran a close second. After this strenuous year, we went home and spent the summer resting.

By the time we got to be juniors, we considered ourselves "tops". Of course, there were the seniors, but they must have just accidentally gotten ahead of us.

This year we took our election to heart, and as a result, Mary Margaret Painter was elected president; Stewart McCorkle, vice-president; Mary Elizabeth Bell, treasurer, and Nancy King, secretary.

Quite a few of us took part in "Stunt Night," which was put on by the school as a whole, but both of the winning stunts were made up of a number of juniors. The band won first place, and the Latin Club won second place. The band had too many members to mention, so the junior cast of the Latin Club stunt will have to suit our purpose. Kingly Hubert Hill played the leading role as Jupiter; handsome Raymond Babelay was Paris; cute little Anne Moore was Juno; "Brainstorm" Anne Henson was Minerva; and beautiful Mary Anne White was Venus. Incidentally, the sketch was called the "Rail or I roy and other Fatal Falls." Causing some of the falls was Kendrick Shipman as Neptune.

Then another High School Day came to pass. Hubert Hill (misspelled) won second place in Virgil and Nancy King won top honors for the debating club.

Going to Nashville to compete in the State Latin Tournament were Hubert Hill, Anne Henson, David Block, and Bob Hethmon.

This year we had another May Day. Our candidates were four of our most charming girls. They were Carrie Belle (sigh) Morris, Sallie Gray, Betty Highbaugh and Mary Lippes. Carrie Belle was first maid to Miss Liberty.

Peter Block Day, or should say Hubert Hill Day, arrived bright and early as our junior year was about to draw to a conclusion. As usual, Hubert Hill won the five dollars for having the highest grades; Bobby Hethmon won second place. Nancy King won the debating cup.

Now we have reached our peaks as we are in full swing of Senior life. In accordance with the duties of a high and mighty senior class, we elected as officers: Nancy King president; Stewart McCorkle, vice-president; Carrie Belle Morris, secretary, and Nancy Johnson, treasurer.

At the beginning of the year, the band chose Evelyn Sisk as Band Sponsor and Stewart McCorkle as Drum Major. No other two could have been found to fill these places of high honor as Evelyn and Stewart did. Mary Margaret Martin was the senior Majorette.

Seniors reaching the much sought after goal of Senior Honor Society were Mary Arthur, Mildred Bowman, Mary Elizabeth Bell, Betty Baird, Betty Chance, Jeanette Deane, Alice Mae Dowling, Faye England, Anna George, Sally Gray, Anne Henson, Nancy Johnson, Nancy King, Bobbye Lynn Kelly, Frances Large, Jean Mays, Carrie Belle Morris, Sarah Murphy, Dorothy Osmun, Mary Anne White, David Block, Wallace Cluck, Bobby Hethmon, Hubert Hill, Arthur Johnson, Jack Lakin, George W. Morton, Stewart McCorkle, Alvin Murphy, Grady Renfro, A. J. Bowling, Fred Sherrod, J. L. Gabbard, and Ralph Sheffer.

Faye England was selected as Editor-in-Chief of the Senior Edition of the Centralite, Nancy King was selected to serve as Advertising Manager; Ralph Sheffer as Business Manager; Gene Grant as Circulation Manager; Nancy Johnson and Kenneth Chapman as Sports Editors; and Betty Highbaugh as typist.

Nancy Johnson won the Daughters of American Revolution Good Citizenship Award. She won this award because she is a girl of superior qualities; she has made outstanding grades and has participated in many high school activities.

The students chosen for the Commencement speakers are Nancy King and Hubert Hill. These were chosen because of their highest grades and speaking abilities.

The school cheerleaders are all seniors. They are Leonard Fulford, head cheerleader, Betty Wylie, Verna Proffitt, Mary Margaret Painter, and Herman Fischer.

In drawing our history to a close, we want to mention a few of our talented members. There is Betty Chance, who sings; Raymond Babelay, pianist; Melvyn Lady, who sings and acts; Joyce Irick, Lenore Caldwell, Kathleen Mahan, and Helen Bell, who act; Nancy King, a debater; and all the accomplished members of the band from our class of whom there are too many to mention.

To the teachers of this school we want to extend our heartiest and warmest thanks for the many hours we have spent with them, and we as the senior class will remember those hours as the happiest tones of our lives.

FOOTBALL

The Central football team, although handicapped by the loss and shortage of experienced players during the early part of the season, turned in another excellent record, suffering only two defeats — Anniston, Alabama and Knoxville High.

Although they played one of the toughest schedules in the team's history, the entire Bobcat squad has been an inspiration to their mentors by their fighting spirit and determination to accomplish what seemed an impossibility.

The group of green inexperienced boys who reported to fall practice in the middle of August did not give much promise of a successful season, but they were rapidly moulded into a polished ball club, through the untiring efforts of their coaches, George Mathis and Barney Searcy.

On Thanksgiving Day, after defeating several of the best teams of the South, they climaxed the season by losing to a valiant Knoxville High Eleven. We haven't much space to talk about that defeat, but we'll see you next year, High School!

Since several of this year's Bobcat team have entered the Armed Services, we want to pay them a special tribute. We know if you fight for Uncle Sam as hard as you fought for Dear 'ole Central, we have every reason to know that we'll come out victorious.

At the annual banquet letters were awarded. Those receiving awards were the following: Captain Mark Major, Captain-elect, J. C. Christian, Alternate captain-elect, Bill Gallaher, Gaylon Wilson, Jim Zirkle, George Schaad, Amos Inklebarger, E. W. Brown, Sumner Dow, Bill Mauk, Jay Hansard, Bill Zachary, Milburn Atkins, Bill Woods, H. D. Williams, Bob Cawrse, Allen Fielden, Ben Watrous, and Bill Fogarty, John Mathis and Eugene Barry received letters as managers.

BASKETBALL

Central had the best team, and therefore, the most successful season in basketball that she has had for several years. The team started off in the top notch performances and continued so throughout the season. Central suffered her only defeat at the hands of the Knoxville High Trojans, but of course we did not mind so very much for we took the first of the two games.

We can say we are very proud of our team because they turned in such a fine performance during the entire season.

The Bobcat basketball team under the guidance of Coaches Barney Searcy and Frank Winegar had a very successful season winning 19 out of 20 games and winning the district championship. They also participated in the regional tournament at Maryville. Bob Cable was the capable captain.

Since Central had not won the district tourney in several years they decided it was about time for them to take the front seat. This she did in very fine fashion. She went through the district tournament without a great score from any team. In the district finals she defeated Knoxville High 25 to 18.

In the East Tennessee Tournament at Maryville, she defeated Norris in the beginning, but lost to Chattanooga Central in the last sixty seconds of the game by the score of 37 to 33. It was certainly a futile race to the very end!

All of the boys deserve a lot of praise for the way they fulfilled their duties during the season. Bob Cable, Captain of the team, proved to be all he was praised to be. Bob, who is hardly the typical tall, rangy, type of basketball player, showed plenty of zip during the entire season. Bobby was one of the mainstays of the team and deserves a great deal of praise. Also, Bill Henry should be praised for making the most points this season.

The boys who received letters are the following: Bob Cable, Ned Irwin, Bill Roberts, Leonard Carter, Jack Adkins, Jack Moore, Carl Hammond, Milton Roberts, Hill Henry, Earl Kunkle, and Herman Fischer.

GOLF

Last year Coach Masterson, co-operating with the "Get Healthy" campaign started some sports at Central other than football and basketball. One of these was the golf team. The golf team consisted of the following boys last year: Bobby Mills,, Gene Grant, George Barnes, Alvin Murphy, Paul Cunningham, Jack Luttrell, and Earl Hicks. The team this year is made up of Paul Cunningham, Bobby Mills, Gene Grant, Jack Luttrell, Alvin Murphy, and Carlyle Alexander. Since the golf season has not fully opened, we do not have any results of our golf team for this year.

Last year the Central Golf Team won the first two places in the East Tennessee High School Golf Tournament. In June, 1942, the golf team, composed of Mills, Grant, Barnes, and Hicks, competed in the Tennessee State High School Golf Tournament at Nashville. Our team is ranked fifth in the high school golf teams in the state.

The team also won the team championship and individual championship in the Knoxville Journal Boys Golf Tournament. Gene Grant won the title of "Boys Golf Champion of Knoxville" in 1942.
